GOSPEL REFLECTION

Jesus compares the Kingdom of Heaven to a field of wheat to enable us to understand that something small and hidden has been sown within us which, nevertheless, has an irrepressible vital force. In spite of all obstacles, the seed will develop and the fruit will ripen. This fruit will only be good if the terrain of life is cultivated in accordance with the divine will. For this reason in the Parable of the Weeds [tares] among the good Wheat (Mt 13:24-30).

Jesus warns us that, after the owner had scattered the seed, "while men were sleeping, his enemy" intervened and sowed weeds among the wheat. This means that we must be ready to preserve the grace received from the day of our Baptism, continuing to nourish faith in the Lord that prevents evil from taking root. St Augustine commenting on the parable noted "many are at first tares but then become good grain", and he added: "if these, when they are wicked, are not endured with patience they would not attain their praiseworthy transformation" (Quaest. septend. in Ev. sec. Matth., 12, 4: PL 35, 1371). (...) Hence if we are children of such a great and good Father, let us seek to be like him! This was the aim Jesus set himself with his preaching; indeed, he said to those who were listening to him: "You... must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect" (Mt 5:48). (Pope Benedict XVI, Angelus, 17 July 2011)

INTENCIONES DE LA MISA

Domingo 19 de Julio, 2026 12:30 PM

+Amalia Mendoza

REFLEXION DEL EVANGELIO

Jesús compara el Reino de los Cielos con un campo de trigo para permitirnos entender que algo pequeño y oculto ha sido sembrado dentro de nosotros que, sin embargo, tiene una fuerza vital irreprimible. A pesar de todos los obstáculos, la semilla se desarrollará y el fruto madurará. Este fruto solo será bueno si el terreno de la vida se cultiva de acuerdo con la voluntad divina. Por esta razón, en la Parábola de las Malezas [iñas] entre el buen trigo (Mt 13:24-30).

Jesús nos advierte que, después de que el dueño esparció la semilla, "mientras los hombres dormían, su enemigo" intervino y sembró malas hierbas entre el trigo. Esto significa que debemos estar preparados para preservar la gracia recibida desde el día de nuestro Bautismo, continuando con la fe en la Señor que impide que el mal arraigue. San Agustín, comentando sobre la parábola, señaló: "muchos son primero garras pero luego se vuelven buen grano", y añadió: "si estos, cuando son malvados, no se soportan con paciencia, no alcanzarán su loable transformación" (Quaest. septen. en Ev. sec. Mat., 12, 4: PL 35, 1371). (...) Por eso, si somos hijos de un Padre tan grande y bueno, ¡busquemos ser como él! Este era el objetivo que Jesús se propuso con su predicación; de hecho, dijo a quienes le escuchaban: "Vosotros... debe ser perfecto, así como tu Padre celestial es perfecto" (Mt 5:48). (Papa Benedicto XVI, Angelus, 17 de julio de 2011)
